

Pope Memorial Library

Image Use Policy

Approved by the Board of Directors – March 8, 2022

Thank you for your interest in using an image of the Pope Memorial Library's photography collection. Image requests can be made by contacting the Pope Memorial Library.

Image Publication and Exhibition Permission

Users must obtain formal permission to publish or exhibit an image belonging to the Pope Memorial Library. Fees to publish or exhibit an image are charged per image. Copyright clearance is the responsibility of the patron. Permission to publish or exhibit a reproduction is granted for one-time use only. In consideration for receiving permission to publish or exhibit images from the collections of the Pope Memorial Library the applicant agrees to the following conditions:

1. The Pope Memorial Library will comply with requests for photographs and images from its collection as possible within the limits of staff time and image ownership.
2. The Library cannot supply images for which known copyright restrictions exist, but because information on certain images in the collection may be unknown, all responsibility for questions of copyright is assumed by the user.
3. Prepaid payment of all fees for any reproduction used in a publication.
4. Permission is granted only for one usage in one publication and one edition.
5. All images remain the property of the Pope Memorial Library.
6. Credit line must accompany each image and read "Courtesy of the Pope Memorial Library."
7. The publisher or author must provide the Pope Memorial Library with one complete gratis copy of any publication in which the image is reproduced. If the image is to be used on a website, the publisher or author will provide a link from its website to the Pope Memorial Library.
8. The following fees apply to image publication (including a website) and exhibition:
Nonprofit: $25 per image Commercial: $200 per image

The Pope Memorial Library reserves the right to change or modify its prices and other terms and conditions applicable to image reproduction and use.

Copyright Information

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17) governs the making of photocopies and other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying or digitization order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

Duplication of images from the collection of the Pope Memorial Library is governed by the foregoing policy. Further publication is permitted only after the completion of an Application for Image Publication or Exhibition form. The completion of said application does not imply clearance of any copyright restrictions other than those vested in the Pope Memorial Library. It is the responsibility of the party using the images from the collections of the Pope Memorial Library to ascertain and clear all copyright restrictions.
